

Advantage Extended Service Coverage for Your Standby Generator Set

Advantage coverage is available for units outside of the Caterpillar standard warranty period. Your generator set purchase was a long-term investment and you can count on Cat Insurance to help protect that investment.

Advantage Extended Service Coverage (ESC) provides 100 percent of usual and customary parts and labor costs for generator set failures due to defects in materials and factory workmanship on a wide range of covered components. And, with Advantage ESC you can have confidence that repairs will be performed by trained Cat® technicians using genuine Cat parts. You don't have to be the original owner to obtain Advantage ESC from Cat Insurance. Whether you're the first owner or the latest, your generator set may qualify for Advantage ESC.

IT'S ALL ABOUT OPTIONS.

Select the coverage terms that meet your needs. Varying month, hour and deductible term options are available.

For complete confidence, we offer Platinum coverage. This includes coverage for all original factory equipment with Cat part numbers, excluding consumables such as filters, hoses, belts, etc., as outlined in the ESC contract.

Platinum coverage for Standby units (over three liters) also covers generator rental expenses up to $20,000 per occurrence, if the unit is down for more than 48 hours for a covered repair.

COVERAGE AVAILABLE WHERE IT'S NEEDED.

Advantage ESC for Standby Electric Power is available worldwide for stationary power units that are in a fixed location. Mobile power units are not eligible. Wherever your stationary Standby generator set is located, the Cat Dealer network is available to serve you.

COVERAGE FOR THE LONG TERM.

Coverage can begin at the expiration of your Caterpillar Factory Warranty or an existing Extended Service Contract. Coverage is available for 12 to 60 month terms and are renewable up to 25 years from the original delivery date.
